Information from Greene Bingham's Confederate Records
Found on Microfilm at Mississippi State University

Greene Bingham joined Company B, 24th Regiment, Mississippi Volunteers under Capt W.L. Lyles at West Point, Mississippi on August 27, 1861. He was a private.

In September, 1861, Greene was listed as a 29-year-old member of "Chickasaw Company" under Capt. J.D. Smith.

On November 7, 1861, Greene transferred to Company C, 24th Regiment, Mississippi Volunteers at Marion Station (just northeast of Meridian), Mississippi. Company C was called "Walthall's Brigade".

On November 1, 1861, Greene was promoted to corporal.

From March through October, 1862, Greene was stationed at Atlanta (in south Chickasaw County), Mississippi.

In June, 1862 and from November 21-30, 1862, Greene was in a military hospital. No reasons for the hospitalizations were given.

At first Greene was listed as possibly captured. But then on December 31, 1862, Greene was listed as "Killed in Action" near Murfreesboro, Tennessee.
